Feminist Political Ecology and the Economics of Care

In Search of Economic Alternatives

Edited by Christine Bauhardt, Humboldt University of Berlin, Germany and Wendy Harcourt, International Institute of Social Studies of Erasmus University, The Netherlands

Series: Routledge Studies in Ecological Economics

This book envisages a different form of our economies where care work and care-full relationships are central to social and cultural life. It sets out a feminist vision of a caring economy and asks what needs to change economically and ecologically in our conceptual approaches and our daily lives as we learn to care for each other and non-human others. Bringing together authors from 12 countries, it sets out the challenges for gender aware economies based on an ethics of care for people and the environment. It aims to break down the assumed inseparability of economic and natural resource exploitation, while not romanticising social-material relations to nature.
